New ways to display your houseplants this Christmas

With their stunning bright and bold foliage, houseplants make the ideal addition to Christmas displays. If you enjoy hosting throughout the festive season, make your houseplants the star of the show by creating a statement piece for your room that is sure to be the envy of your guests.

STEP 1

Choose a location for your cut Christmas tree in your room. We have chosen the Fraser Fir cut slim Christmas tree, priced at £39.99.

STEP 2

Select your potted houseplants. We recommend using red bromeliad for their stand-out colour against the green pine needles. Carefully place your potted plant inside the tree – position them in the centre of the tree where the branches are thicker and able to support their weight. You can also hold in place with twine for extra support.

STEP 3

Ensure that you regularly mist the houseplants. The added bonus is that when misting the houseplants, you will also ensure your Christmas tree is refreshed keeping them both healthy and fresh throughout the festive period.

STEP 4

To elevate this style further, add houseplants to your dining table or side table. Use gold pots to bring the festive houseplant design to life.

Houseplants

Houseplants can bring an additional festive touch to your Christmas theming. With a wonderful collection of foliage available in all sorts of sizes, they are ideal for any space in your home. Dressed with plant-safe decorations and lights, they'll be the perfect complement to other decorations. And, they make fantastic gifts that keep on giving, long after the festive period.

How to create an air plant wreath this Christmas

This year, we're recommending air plant wreaths as a stunning and long lasting alternative to the traditional Christmas wreath. By putting living plants at the heart of the decoration, you can create a simple yet beautiful addition for your door or wall that, with a little low maintenance, can ensure the magic of Christmas stays for a little longer in your home.

STEP 1

Start by taking a plain willow wreath, available at Dobbies for £6.99. If you are feeling more creative you can make your own from foraged twigs from your garden.

STEP 2

Select which air plants you would like to include in your wreath. You can find suitable plants in-store at Dobbies like Tillandsia varieties 'Curly Slim' and 'Samantha' – or choose a cluster of air plants like Tillandsia ionantha clump mix.

STEP 3

Cover the wreath with a layer of Spanish moss first. Create openings within this to add the air plants. If you would prefer to have them more securely fastened, use thin garden wire or twine to hold into position. Simply twist around the fronds of the wreath to hold in position.

STEP 4

Consider the overall look that you want to create for your wreath. It can be complete, with air plants all around, or filled (as pictured) with air plants placed on the lower half leaving space for decoration above.

STEP 5

For an added touch of Christmas, add a satin green bow and position on a door or wall. Some indirect sunlight and good air circulation are needed to keep the air plants in peak condition. The great thing about an air plant wreath is that it doesn't need to come down after Christmas. Simply mist to keep the plants fresh, and update the bow and decorations, to carry over into the new season and have a beautiful wreath to enjoy throughout the year.

Our National Charity Partner

We're proud to support Alzheimer's Research UK as our National Charity Partner.

Right now, almost one million people are living with dementia in the UK. Tragically, not one of them will survive. The UK's leading dementia research charity, Alzheimer's Research UK, is working to change this by revolutionising the way dementia is treated, diagnosed, and prevented.

But they can't do it alone. And that's where we come in. In partnership with Alzheimer's Research UK, Dobbies is highlighting the benefits of garden living for brain health, and raising funds to find a cure for dementia. Together, we're committed to showing our brains some love through gardening and helping to reduce the risk of dementia.

This year, all proceeds from ticket sales for our Christmas Shopping Night on Thursday 27 November will be donated to Alzheimer's Research UK.

For more information on this partnership, visit www.dobbies.com or get in touch.
